Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file is deemed to be objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes.

The image file has been downloaded from the internet. The image shows two naked prepubescent girls posing for the camera in a contrived display that exposes the genital area of one girl. The image is intended for sexual titillation and arousal. It invites viewers to see prepubescent girls as ready for sexual activity and encourages a sexual interest in children.

The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and is a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
